

AJEX News....

76th Annual Remembrance Ceremony & Parade

Air Chief Marshal Sir Stephen Dalton

On 21st November 2010, a week after Remembrance Sunday, AJEX will once again march down Whitehall to attend their annual Ceremony, in remembrance of the fallen British Jewish service men and women.

Each year, a dignitary is invited to take part in the Parade as the Reviewing Officer and this year Air Chief Marshal Sir Stephen Dalton KCB ADC BSc FRAeS CCMI RAF has gratefully agreed to take on this important role.

Joining the RAF in 1976, Air Chief Marshal Dalton, served in Germany and the UK during the "Cold War". He has also served in the Middle East and flew armed missions over Iraq. Other serving roles include being commander of RAF Colishall, Air Commodore as Director of Defence Eurofighter, Director of Air Operations, Deputy Colonel-in-Chief Personnel and his current role as Air Chief Marshal.

Married with 2 grown up children he enjoys tennis, skiing, squash and golf, theatre and reading.

Sept 2010