

Over One Hundred AJEX Members Mark Armed Forces Day

For immediate release

June 2011

On 22nd June 2011, three days before National Armed Forces Day, members of AJEX - The Association of Jewish Ex-servicemen and Women - gathered together from branches up and down the country, to pay their respects at the National Memorial Arboretum in Alrewas, Staffordshire.

The moving day included two ceremonies, one at the AJEX National Jewish memorial and the other at the RAF memorial.

Both ceremonies were attended by students and staff from Chasetown Specialist Sports College in Burntwood, Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School and Broadway School, West Midlands.

For more information please contact - Aviva Ozin - consulting press officer
Faith Communications – pr@faithcommunications.co.uk
Tel. 020 8346 6131 - Mob. 07976 408 345

AJEX Charitable Foundation - registered charity number 1082148
www.ajex.org.uk